

Smt. Mamta Chandrakar – Folk Singer

Smt. Mamta Chandrakar is a well known folk singer of Chhattisgarh. Her rendition of popular Chhattisgarhi song and bhajans has made her a household name in the State. Presently working as Deputy Director in All India Radio, Raipur, She along with her troupe is actively engaged in promoting the culture of the state, through stage and TV performances. She has been associated with different Government sponsored programmes targeted at women empowerment, female literacy and combatting prevailing social superstitions & bias. Over the years she has been conferred with a number of awards. Owing to her popularity in the state, she was appointed as the State Icon in 2013, to engage with voters in rural areas and has been instrumental ever since in spreading voter awareness in the state.